

Schedule

- 8:00a Registration – Continental Breakfast
- 8:30a Opening Remarks – Kathey Porter, MBA CPSD, Director, UF SBVDR
- 8:45a Demetria Sloan, National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) and Founder/CEO Vantage Point Coaching
Lead Like a Lady
- 9:00a Renita Hunt, President, Dress For Success - Greater Orlando Chapter
Giving is the New Black
- 9:50a Karima Mariama-Arthur, Esq., Founder & CEO, WordSmithRapport™ and Author, Poised For Excellence
The Audacity of Leadership: Why Women Must Make the Bold Choice to Take Charge
- 10:35a BREAK
- 10:45a Sherron Washington, Founder & CEO, P3 Solution
It's Showtime! How Entrepreneurial Women Can Increase Their WOW Factor
- 11:30a BREAK
- 11:45p Luncheon – Keynote
Presentation to Dress For Success®
- 1:00-2:00p Networking Dessert Reception and Book signing

About UF Small Business and Vendor Diversity Relations

UF Small Business & Vendor Diversity Relations is responsible for overseeing the University's Supplier Diversity Program which focuses on ensuring equal access for Small/HUB Zone/Minority/Small Disadvantaged/Veteran/Service-Disabled Veteran/& Women-Owned businesses, by providing them equal opportunity to compete for procurement and contracting opportunities at the University. The division works with the various colleges and departments at the University to increase awareness and to help identify opportunities for small businesses and host many events for interested small and diverse businesses to connect with the University including the Annual Small Business Opportunity Fair + Summit, Women's Entrepreneurship + Leadership Conference and the Mentor Protégé Program.

Sponsors

